Preface

Since my book in Bengali on this subject was published, my English speaking friends and colleagues were insisting me for an English translation of the Bengali version,

The English edition however, could only be published after my book in Bengali has gone through eight editions. I am extremely sorry for this inordinate delay.

The book is the product of my experience but I have also incorporated experience of my other friends in the profession.

I have suggested in my book some mixed medicines for quick remedy from pain. Afterwards, of course, proper treatment is required as per symptoms. I have also mentioned some medicines equivalent to allopathic ones which have been proved to give extremely good result. I am indebted to my revered father Late Sri Pulin Behari Bandyopadhyaya (principal, Shankar Math Homoeopathic Medical College) in compiling the book. I am also grateful to late Dr. Rabindra Nath Sarkar, Dr. Gurupada Dai, my student Dr. Krishna Acharya and Dr. Radha-ballav Sharma for their continued support and suggestion making the book published.
