ACONITE

Fear: of the dark; to go where others are; of death; of the future; of her recovery; crossing a busy street; loss of reason. Fearful predictions. Disposed to be frightened. Ailments from fright, even remote, esp. jaundice. Anxiety: inconsolable, may be followed by total apathy; with piteous wailing; with cold sweat. Extreme timidity, esp. after fright; shows itself in countenance.

BELLADONNA

Fear: of imaginary things, wishes to run & hide; of black dogs; fiery shining object; objects in delirium; approaching death; with anxiety, continual restlessness & desire to escape. Tormented by terrible anxiety. Timorous insanity. Sometimes desires death rather than fears it.

Melancholy: with grief, hypochondriacal humor, moral dejection, discouragement; with hysteria. Lamentation, groans, cries dejection & weakness of mind & body. Depression or too great hilarity. Weary of life, wishes to drown herself. Sudden changes from merry mood to quiet meditation or active delirium; morose & serious or undue & excitable mood easily brought to tears.

HYOSCYAMUS

Fear: of being left alone; of being poisoned; to eat or drink what is offered; of being betrayed or injured; of syphilis; with anguish. Horrid anguish; fits of anxiety. Anxious apprehension & chronic fearfulness. Consequences of fright.

Melancholy: great variety of melancholic manifestations; after disappointed love or fit of passion; with rage or disposition to laugh at everything; gradually develops into true madness. Morose dejection; despair. Whines but does not know why.

STRAMONIUM

Many fears connected with his distorted mental state: that he is alone & is frightened; he is going to fall; something will fall on him; moves suddenly to avoid animals that pursue him; his features reflect the fright & terror of his visions. After fright; mania, melancholia, epileptic attacks, spasms, chorea.

DEPRESSION

Unhappiness, worry, despair, esp. in delirium. Moaning, anxious lamentations; cries, tears, complaints, groans, reproaches; sadness with solicitude & anxiety. Disposition to weep. Music makes her so sad it is unbearable. Alternate gaiety & gloom.

SADNESS

Melancholy: with grief, hypochondriacal humor, moral dejection, discouragement; with hysteria. Lamentation, groans, cries dejection & weakness of mind & body. Depression or too great hilarity. Weary of life, wishes to drown herself. Sudden changes from merry mood to quiet meditation or active delirium; morose & serious or undue & excitable mood easily brought to tears.

MELANCHOLY

Sadness with deadly anguish. Sad: apprehends evil consequences from trifling things. Inconsolable, affected much by trifles; crying, weeping, lamenting, downcast, believes herself unworthy, or thoughts of death. Alternates between exalted state & settled melancholy.

SUSPICION

Misanthropic; anthropophobia; shuns people; no affection for anybody.

MISTRUST

Disposition fearful, mistrustful, suspicious, apprehensive, wants to run away. Dread of society.

SELFISHNESS

Jealousy: with rage & the attempt to murder; with erotic mania; causes serious illness, or violent threatening nervous symptoms; unfounded jealousy.

ENVY

Self-will & obstinacy.
